

Our Christmas Message

Christmas is a season of great joy: a time for remembering the past and hoping for the future.

A Christmas Candle makes no noise, but softly gives itself away while quite unselfishly grows small.

Remember those who suffer most in this season, give of yourself unselfishly like the candle and bring joy and peace to all you meet.

May your home be filled with the joy of this Christmas Season!

*Rebecca McCarrell, President,
Fr. Greg Bonin, Spiritual Advisor
And the London Diocesan Council*