I hope everyone enjoyed the Christmas season with family and friends. We were blessed to have our son, his wife and 3 children visit us for 12 days for the first Christmas in many years. They live in beautiful Kelowna, B.C. and when they returned home it was 20 degrees warmer than here. We have dug out from yesterday's snow and are preparing for the predicted next dumping this weekend. I pray everyone stays safe during these winter storms.

Thanks to all who completed the annual reports online. The diocesan executive is eagerly awaiting receiving the compiled reports from national. This allows us to then write our reports to send to provincial. We are also looking forward to reading your reports in the annual report book – I trust you have sent a report to Rebecca for the book.

For those councils who have had elections, I welcome the new presidents. Thank you to all who are now past-presidents. I know you will be there to mentor and support your successor.

By the time you receive this directive, you should also receive the registration package for the 2018 diocesan convention. The information will also be available on our diocesan website shortly. As this is an election year, please send at least one member to vote on your council's behalf. Also, you will be asked to send in your instructed vote to Marie-Theresa Lamphier. You will keep a copy for yourself to bring to convention as you must vote according to your instructed vote.

May God bless you as you continue to respond to His call.

Angela
